Mari Kilgus

Charlotte, NC • (336)-918-5284 • mkilgus@g.clemson.edu

OBJECTIVE

Seeking an internship to develop practical experience with software engineering

EDUCATION

Clemson University || Clemson, SC   Expected May 2022
Major(s): Computer Science (BA), Psychology (BA)
Minor(s): Music
GPA: 4.0/4.0

Providence High School || Charlotte, NC   August 2018 - May 2019
Ronald Wilson Reagan High School || Winston-Salem, NC   August 2015 - May 2018
GPA: 3.76/4.0

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Programming Language Exposure: C, C++, SAS Studio, SPSS Statistics
Certifications: Microsoft Word, Microsoft Powerpoint

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Friends of the Brooks Center Grant in Aid for Performing Arts Scholarship Recipient   August 2019
- Clemson University Tiger Band Association Scholarship and Award Program Scholarship Recipient August 2019
- Jansen Family Endowed Tiger Band Grants-in-Aid Scholarship Recipient   August 2019
- Jansen Family Annual Grant-in-Aid for Tiger Band Scholarship Recipient   August 2019

EXPERIENCE

Undergraduate Organizations/Memberships

- Clemson University Marching Band   August 2019 - Present

Work Experience

- Trader Joe's Crew Member   July 2017 - July 2018
  - Bagging groceries, assisting to arrange shelves, bringing in carts, cleaning the floor, assisting other crew members, answering questions about Trader Joe's products in order to make sure that every customer has a fun, friendly and informative shopping experience

Undergraduate Research Assistant

- Team Research in Computational Environments Led by: Dr. Nathan McNeese   January 2020 - Present
  - Conducting team research on human-agent teaming specifically targeting how team cognition is affected by spatial awareness
  - Researching projects regarding human-agent teaming and interaction
- Happiness and Values Led by Natalie Vanelli   January 2020 - Present
  - Revised happiness pathways scenarios
  - Conducting data collection and research